

STATE OF PLM IN APPAREL & FASHION

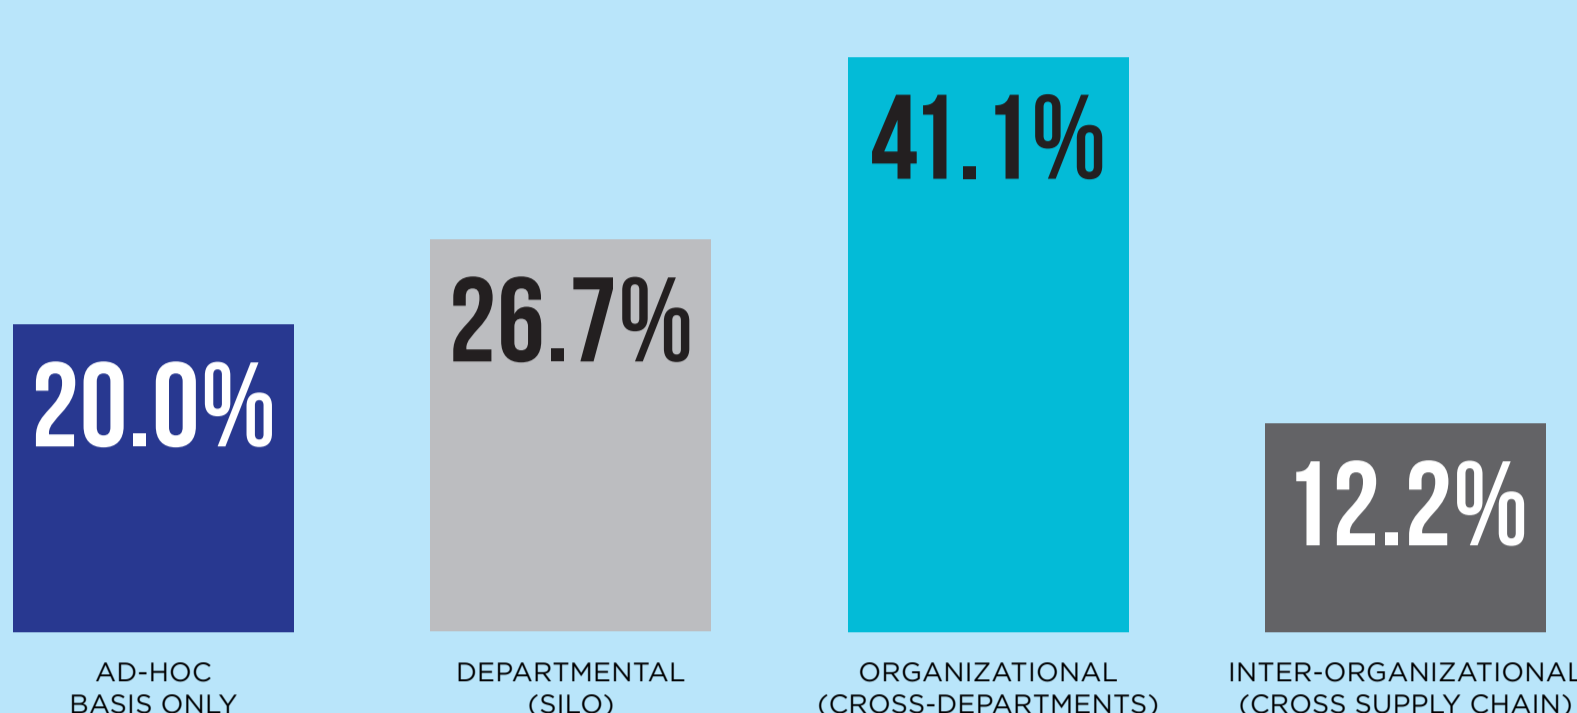

In the 2020 edition of the CGS SUPPLY CHAIN TRENDS & TECHNOLOGY report, we surveyed 100+ apparel and fashion industry leaders responsible for Product Lifecycle Management (PLM) solutions to gain insights into the top PLM trends for 2020.

Our findings show that investing in the PLM discipline and its supporting technology is one of the keys to remaining competitive in the fashion industry. PLM will streamline collaboration, reduce errors and rework, and improve visibility. Deploying PLM across the entire demand and supply chain has the power to change the way fashion companies do business and achieve their digital transformation.

MOST BRANDS ARE USING PLM INTERNALLY ONLY

How mature is the use of your PLM processes and technologies in your organization?

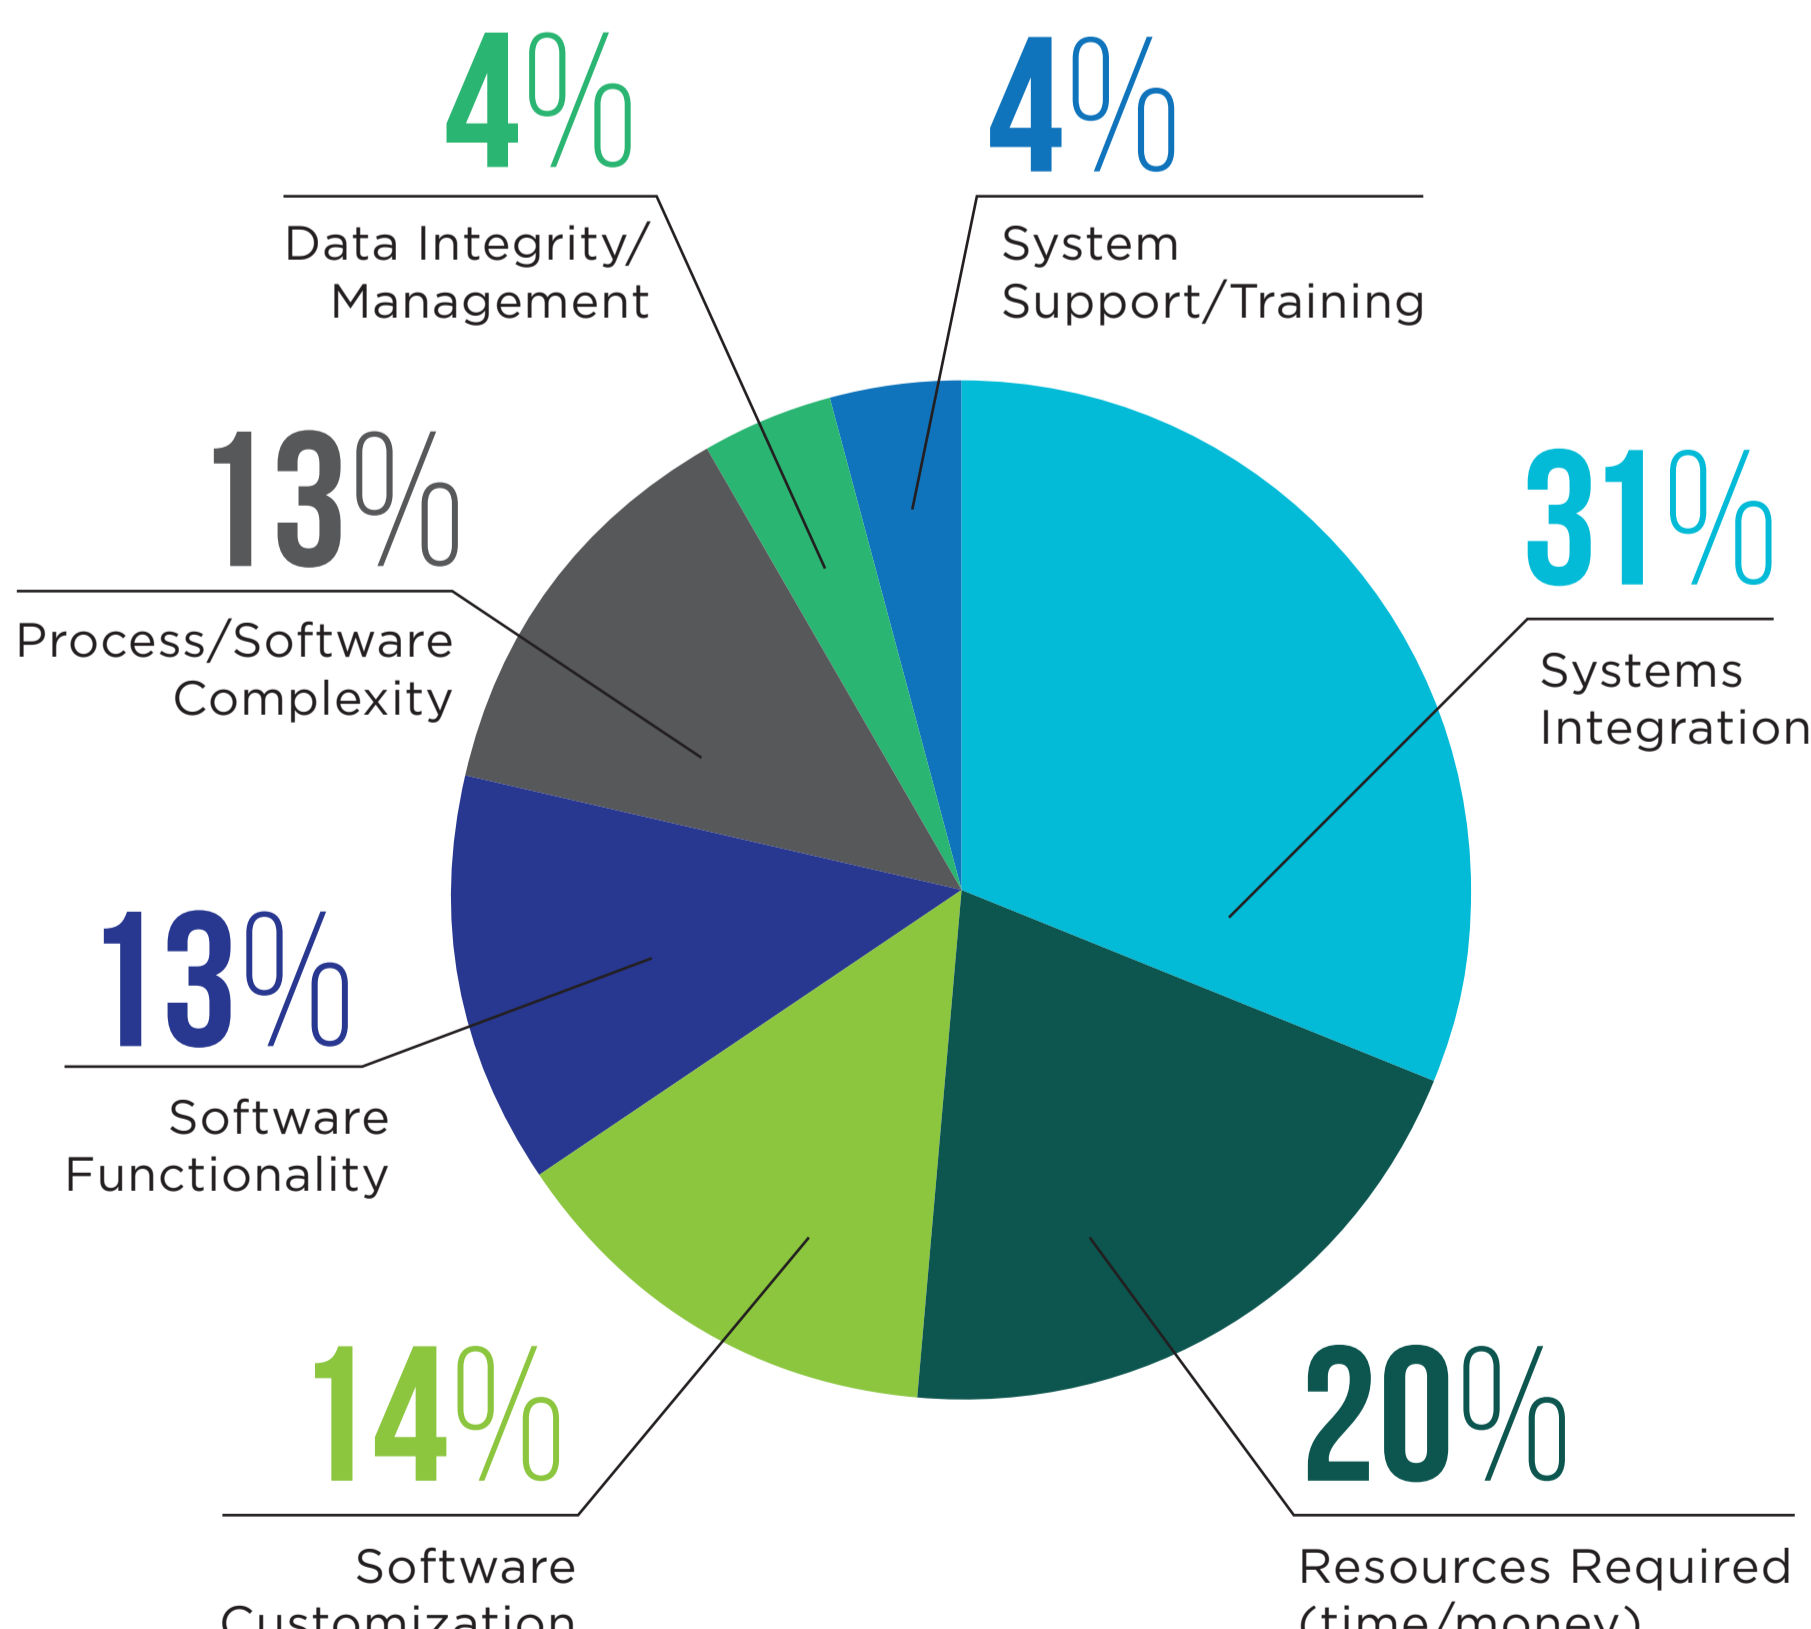

With only 12% leveraging PLM across their extended supply chains, the survey results highlight the massive opportunity to extend the use of PLM to the broader supply chain.

PLM CHALLENGES AND PAINPOINTS

PLM is a multi-year journey. One cannot turn a basic PLM deployment into a truly optimized organization-wide solution in a short time. While all businesses should strive to attain top levels of maturity, it is critical to take a step-by-step approach and focus on the areas and challenges that your business deems priorities.
